Bulgarian troops have occupied positions in the area between Dragoman and the Yugoslav border on the Sofia-Dragoman-Caribrod line. Additional troops are bivouacked behind these troops, and artillery has been placed in position. This force, which is composed of various army units, bears the name General Military Regiment Number 9005 and has a strength of approximately 15,000 men. It is not known which units make up this group, but it is known that the unit from Plovdiv bears the identification number 81-40.
